Hallettsville Items.

Hallettsville, Tex., Sep. 17, 1900.
Editor Gazette:

County court convened here for fall term this morning. The docket, both criminal and civil, is unusually small. Charles Strauss, Esq., of Shiner, is doing jury service.

The citizens of Hallettsville sent a contribution to the storm sufferers. Hon. French Simpson headed the list with $100. The local lodge also contributed to their brethren.

Judge Wm. Blakeslee, state president C. K. A., went to Galveston to give the distressed members of his order necessary assistance.

The democratic executive committee is to meet here tomorrow for purpose of supplying the vacancy on ticket caused by declination of Mr. J. C. Laurkin to continue in race for representative. Whom lightning will strike this writer is not prepared to say. It is, however, to be hoped that some one with staying qualities may be found.

There is a great demand for cotton pickers here. Many Moulton neighborhood were here yesterday looking for pickers and offering best prices paid in many years.

Postmaster W. J. Miller and W. W. Washington (colored) left yesterday for San Antonio, presumably to attend the republican State convention. W. W. Scott and a number of others left for the same place today.

S. W. Patney, an employee at the oil mill, had his right hand badly crushed a few days since.

Prof. F. P. Guenther went to Moulton on Saturday to remove his family to this place.

The public schools will open next Monday. An additional room has been rented and one more teacher employed to meet the increased enrollment.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod Liver Oil is the means of life, and enjoyment of life to thousands men women and children.

When appetite fails, it restores it. When food is a burden, it lifts the burden.

When you lose flesh, it brings the plumpness of health.

When work is hard and duty is heavy, it makes life bright.

It is the thin edge of the wedge, the thick end is food. But what is the use of food when you hate it and can't digest it?

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the food that makes you forget your stomach.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample. Its agreeable taste will surprise you.

Chas. Strauss, SHINER, TEXAS.

went to Galveston to look after relatives residing there.

Mrs. F. E. Huck and son of this place, were in Galveston during the storm, but much to the relief of friends here, were saved and are now at home.

A. Moeller has opened a branch store in Ringo, and S. Goldberg will follow suit.

Business here is said to be very dull, and this writer knows that money is hard to get. Hope Shiner and her people are faring better.

Corn huskers' sprained wrists, barbed wire cuts and sprains or cuts from any other cause, are quickly healed when Ballard's Snow Liniment is promptly applied. Price, 25 and 50 cents. For sale by all druggists.

Storm News From Galveston.

Chas. Hasser, wife and child, are reported among the list of the dead at Galveston. Mrs. Hasser was a niece of Henry Albrecht of our city.

Mr. E. E. Hildebrandt received a telegram from Galveston last Thursday, stating that his stepson, wife and child had been drowned in the storm. Mr. Hildebrandt and wife have our sympathy and condolence.

The Schneider family, cousins of Mr. Oscar Dittmar, were lost in the Galveston storm.

D. Garbade, of Witting, not being able to hear anything of his brother in Galveston, left yesterday for that storm-wrecked city.

Arthur Wandell received a telegram Tuesday noon from Willie Eichler, a cousin at Galveston, stating that his parents and three brothers and sisters were drowned in the storm and their home swept away.

His brother Eddie and sister Anna were saved. They lived in the East part of town and within two blocks of the beach. The three children will probably come here to live.—Hallettsville Herald.

Wm. Blakeslee left Wednesday for Houston where he, as state president of the Catholic Knights, will supervise the distribution of supplies, etc., sent in by his order for the Galveston storm sufferers.—Hallettsville Herald.

Cure of Chronic Diarrhoea After Thirty Years of Suffering.

"I suffered for years with diarrhoea and thought I was past being cured," says John S. Holloway, of French Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was tortured by the effects of the diarrhoea, that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have." For sale by Edward Schultz.

CHASES BARLEY MALT WHISKY

CHASES Barley Malt Whisky
is a barley malt whisky, made from barley, corn, sorghum, rye, and other grain, and the Chase system of process. This is the only system that eliminates every trace of acetic acid and fusel oil. Barley whisky is weaker than grain whisky, but it contains more beneficial qualities.
